Class of 2005

Growing up is never easy. You hold on to things that were. You wonder what's to come. I think we knew it was time to let go of what had been, and look ahead to what would be. Other days. New days. Days to come. The thing is, we didn't have to hate each other for getting older. We just had to forgive ourselves for growing up. ~The Wonder Years

Joey's Favorite Prayer:
The Flat Of The Eternal Father

My Beloved Father,
Thy Will Be Done On Earth As It Is In Heaven. Be Thou My Father. Be Always My Eternal Father. Do Not Leave My Soul. Do Not Leave Me Out Of Your Sight, My Father, For I Am Your Child Whom You Have Created To Please You, To Adore You, To Honor You, Living My Days As You Have Given Me The License To Live It.

Well Saugus High, it was fun. Thinking back on all the friends, clubs, and fun times there is a lot to miss. Science team and the Prince trips, crazy MUN debate, the days of the math team, Comtech and programming day, the few times I actually did Drama, never winning a Mock Trial case, and above all else the Improv troupe, Needs Improvment. Duytam and I playing countless hours of tennis till the sun set, and sometimes after, to earn our spots as captains. My consistant failure to help the soccer team. Team Agersea and the rest of the Halo crew, including tth Malaysian Asians, playing late and riding around with kids in the trunk. Lastly I think back on the times the "Wiggatics" spent together and the times I will miss with them. I would like to wish all my other friends the best of luck and hope to see everyone again. Farewell!

Jeffrey Agersea

Roaming the halls on that final day my heavy footseps echo. The yells, laughter, and the tears. All that's accumulated the past 4 years. Failures, fights, teary nights; Times when I didint feel like I belonged. The hand of a friend on your shoulder can make the burdes turn to wings. My golden years my seem tarnished to you but I'll pack them up in a gilded box. They'll float with me whereever I go Dunks, Boston, Parties, love, hugs, kisses, salt, light, RSM, dance, friends, enemies, hate, pain may all crumble to the ground, but they wrote their names on my heart-The way they are is the way they'll be, eternally. At least to me...There will never be enough room for me to express how much I love yall. This is so tough leaving, but it has to be. As much as I hated it, I'm sad its over :)

To start this thing off I want to mention my loving parents.Thank you for being by my side through everything you both know how much you mean to me. To both my brothers Robbie & Joey and my favorite and only sister Lynde,I love you all too.Also I Just wanna say what up to the other people who mean something to me so I will remember you all in 25 years when I pull this year book out of a box and dust it off to read it. First off what up to my closest boys throughout high school SM DOB KS JP TF MF and also to the otha boys who I chill with all the time (you know who you are). Also to my girlies you know who you are who mean a lot to me.MR you have always been there for me ever since I met you,thanks sweetcheeks,love ya! Anyone who wasn't mentioned in particular, gimme a call...PEACE

My senior year has come and gone, I still can't believe it. I want to thank my mom and dad for helping me become the person I am today. During my years here I have found my true friends Jenn, Candace, Lisa, and Joe. I don't know what I would do without you guys xoxo BFFL. I also found my true love Brian 143xo. To keep myself busy I was part of Varsity Cheerleading for football, hockey, and basketball. 2003 was the best year for Hockey Cheering, we came in third place in the state at our competition. Everything happens for a reason and I would not change anything I have gone through in my life because my experiences have made me a much stronger person. A part of me will miss high school and a part of me will be glad it's over, and just remember at every ending there is a new beginning. Good Luck to the senior class of 2005. We will be remembered XOXO

Joanne Buonopane

Despite the seemingly endless days, senior year and graduation, those things that were once so far ahead, have arrived too quickly. I'll miss seeing my friends everyday. I won't miss having my every movement controlled by bells. Regardless of our record, this tennis season will be the one I remember most fondly. Playing Queen of the Court and "nail-biting" three-seters were just some of the good times. I loved being a captain and making a fool of myself with Jen and Julie. Art Club, with Danielle, has had its share of good times, bow parties at my house and murals in the summer. I hope that everyone has the best of luck in the future and finds some aspect of high school to look back on fondly, as I will surely remember many things.

"Take the good with the bad, smile when you're sad. Love what you got, remember what you had. Always forgive, but never forget. Learn from mistakes but never regret." These past 4 years have come and gone so quickly, but the memories will always stay with me. "Jazz is the teacher, funk is the preacher, tell it to me!" These are the words to which I love my life. Weather it be groovin' to Phish, cruising around in the "krazy train", jamming with VE, chillin at the water in g-hole, or just plain old running down main street at 3 am. with Ali Bizzle and Al Dizzle in our boxers...well, I've said too much. With that in mind, I'd like to share with you the words of a wise man. "Oh garbit! There is some flotting colorful grabber pimples on my stigger biggers!" You see, had these words not been said to me, I just might have been mildly frost bitten. So there you have it. I hope this can help you in finding your true life path. Be sure to follow your heart, and be sure to read up on the helping friendly book. SK Sk SK Sk! P.S special thanks to D. Smizzle and the Flounder Stairs, featuring cowboy number 3

Looking back on the last four years of my life I've noticed how much I have grown from a child into an adult. High school has been an experience no one should pass up. Great times with JA RB JD MF KH and AM. BOSTON! LONDON 2004 w/ JULIE AND RAY. Fun times. Times I'll never forget w/ EC and AD. "Memories last a lifetime." Thank you Kaitlyn for being the best friend for the past 18 years. I cherished every memory. Others, NV CC and MB, good times. Thanks to all my teachers who have showed me how to overcome challenges. And thank you Mom & Dad for helping and saving me in the toughest times of my life. I owe you. And to Saugus High, I'll miss the moments that memories were made and times were shared. "Live today like you will die tomorrow."--"You live the life you're given with the storms outside, somedays all I do is watch the sky."

Wow...I did it! Those twelve years just flew by. I will never forget the knowledge I have obtained from all those great teachers. The friends I have made will never be forgotten. The Astronomy Rhombus, Osgood's English, and Doc's Physics class are some of the high points. "Shutter-twitch", baby Jesus, and sidetracking teachers keep me laughing today. These past years have been the best years of my life. I wouldn't be the person I am today if my Mom and Dad were not by my side every step of the way. Well class of "05" it's time to say good-bye to our old lives and hello to the future. Thank you for everything and good luck with everything you do.

Adam D'Amato

Thank god it's finally over! We have been through so much over the years. It's been fun. From freshman year until now. I want to say thanks to my family who have always been there for me. To my friends this has been the best time ever, just wait until college starts now. KP, MH, CF, BB, FR, SK, MN, RG, and others, high school was awesome with you guys. The football team, kids I'll never forget. Cassandra I love you, thanks for being there for me. To my Parents and Grandparents, thank you for the help you have given me over the years. After these four crazy years it really did go by fast that I never did take a look around. Good luck to all my friends. I'll see you around town. Now it is off to college to start all over again. Later everybody.

High school only lasts four years, but the friendships and experiences last a life time. I will never forget the laughs and tears with LS, SC,MR, and SC. I love you girlies! Dave, Thanks for everything. You make me laugh when I don't even want to smile. I would like to thank my family, friends, and teachers, especially my parents, for all the support. Mom and Dad, I don't know how you always put up with me, but thanks for always being there. I love you. Matthew, I will miss you next year, keep up the good work. In high school, your friends are the people who seem to matter the most. LS,SC,MR,RW,SC,SB,AO,JD,NF,MS, RG, and MN you guys are the best. To the soccer chicks, thanks for the memories. To the class of 05, we made it! We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little of each other everywhere. Good Luck! MuahXOX

The first person that I would like to thank for getting me this far is my mom, Patti. She has always been there for me whenever I needed help getting through life. I could definately not have made it this far without you. Thanks, Ma. I love you. I also want to thank my family, Kristiana and Kyle and Carmen for helping me along the way. Throughout my four years at Saugus Hgh, I had two of the best friends anyone could ask for. Mike Sinclair and Kevin Chimo have been the greatest friends and will always remain that way. Hopefully by the time we read this, the Boston Red Sox will have won the World Series. I also want to thank the rest of my family for supporting me for eighteen years. How did you put up with me? And for the very last time, I AM RICK JAMES! 2005-A year to remember. Thank you all. Goodbye SHS. Break the Walls Down 2005.

Thank you Jesus. Finally out of this town. I'll miss a lot friends, work, but especially all my teachers- no one realizes the great people in this school. Mrs. Lynn without you I wouldnt be getting out. Brandwein- miss talking to ya. Bliss- still and always be the man. Weeks I'll never forget to be a library geek. Maruzzi showed me that goodness be gets goodness. I know I'm missing people and my friends know how I feel. I love you all and be safe and make good choices.

As this year comes to an end and with it my high school life too, all I can do is look back and think of all the friends that I have made and lost. From Tom, Dave, G, Phil, Joanne, Mike, Kev, and all the others I missed. All the good times race to your head. It's sad to think you could never see these kids again and you're going into an unknown world out there. When my parents said every year will go quicker and quicker I didn't believe them but now I know what they were talking about. As my life is changing day by day with school ending you realize how much fun it was to actually go to school and be with all your friends, and how much these school years have shaped who you are today and into the future.

Just think about four years ago, who you knew, what you did, who you are. Sometimes I take trips back, listening to a song, smelling a sent like nas-champa. I tried to push my adolesence to the limit, and I believe I succeeded. Everyone I have met has effected me or changed me, for the good and the bad. I can't really remember the good times, thats how you know they're good. I know I'm going to reminice over talks with Brandwein and most of all Art Class. To all the future classes, remember to FREE YOUR HEAD!! My companions, my friends, my 2nd family, so much love. No need for names, you guys know, I can't wait to see what's in store for us. Remember to stop, and absorb the beauty all around you. Change the world. I'll be in the van down by the river.

Schools out... I enjoyed most of it except the whole classwork thing. Schools out, schools out, schools out. Eeee! Now on to the bigger and better things. Schools out, sports were quality in every aspect. People were lovely and magnificant. Now is the time when I talk about my friends, David Messina, Michael Carusso, David Rossi, Michael Essery, Gregory Dineen, and Tyler Polimeno. The teachers have been wonderful, Font definitly a crazy guy, Mrs. Millett's class junior year was onc of the best. Soccer senior year is hard with coach Webb taking over. Wc still don't win though. CRAIG & MATTHEW SERINO

BROTHERS

There are people in this world who might think us strange.
There are people in this world
who do not know our range.
We are always very loving,
well maybe not all the time.
But we simply fit together,
like the wind and the chime.
Our brotherly relationship is odd,
not like most brothers.
We yell, we fight, we love,
and we care like no others.
This time in your lives is something to cherish always.
These are the best of times,
do not waste a single day.
I am always here to listen,
talk, and do what I do.
But no matter what I say,
my love is always true.

Matt & Craig,

Congratulations, and Good Luck!

We are very proud of all that you both have achieved!

Love,
Mom
C.J. & Kristin

AS YOUR MOTHER
BY: ANONYMOUS

I CAN SHARE WITH YOU LIFE
BUT I CANNOT LIVE IT FOR YOU.
I CAN GIVE YOU DIRECTIONS
BUT I CANNOT ALWAYS BE THERE TO LEAD YOU.
I CAN TAKE YOU TO CHURCH
BUT I CANNOT MAKE YOU BELIEVE.
I CAN ALLOW YOU FREEDOM
BUT I CANNOT ACCOUNT FOR YOU.
I CAN TEACH YOU RIGHT FROM WRONG
BUT I CANNOT ALWAYS DECIDE FOR YOU.
I CAN OFFER YOU ADVICE
BUT I CANNOT ACCEPT IT FOR YOU.
I CAN GIVE YOU LOVE
BUT I CANNOT FORCE IT UPON YOU.
I CAN TEACH YOU TO BE A FRIEND
BUT I CANNOT MAKE YOU ONE.
I CAN TEACH YOU TO RESPECT
BUT I CANNOT FORCE YOU TO HONOR
I CAN ADVISE YOU ABOUT FRIENDS
BUT I CANNOT CHOOSE THEM FOR YOU.
I CAN TEACH YOU TO OBEY
BUT I CANNOT ANSWER FOR YOUR ACTIONS.
I CAN TEACH YOU KINDNESS
BUT I CANNOT MAKE YOU TO BE GRACIOUS.
I CAN AND I WILL LOVE YOU FORVER.
